

J. E. Brownlee Speaks at Delia

Inclement Weather and Condition of Roads Prevents Large Attendance

Delivers Eloquent Address and Gets Good Reception

Mr. J. E. Brownlee had a very attractive, interesting audience when he addressed a meeting at the Olympia Theatre on Thursday afternoon, June 13th. The rain and the state of the roads amounted to the fact that only a few people were present, but the weather here has the hall would probably have been crowded to its full capacity.

W. L. Carter occupied the chair and introduced the speaker. Mr. Brownlee opened his remarks by referring to the world wide state of depression, which he maintained had been experienced upon Alberta. In a brief survey of world conditions, he declared that Japan was the one country today that could be depended on having a monetary policy, but that this was accomplished by conditions of labor and living that we in Alberta must not tolerate.

In a recital of what the U.F.A. government had accomplished for the people of Alberta, since taking office in 1921, Mr. Brownlee declared the railways inherited from the previous government, and which were a drain upon the province, had been rehabilitated and sold at a price of $5,000,000 more than had first been offered for them.

That the government had fought and won for the province the control of its natural resources.

Had covered the Turner Valley oilfield in the interests of the province.

Turning to administrative affairs, the speaker said there were fewer than 100,000 employed in the province, and that the cost of government was now $1,000,000,000 in 1931.

Mr. Brownlee stated that the Treasury Act had prevented farmers from pulling off their land for arrears of tax.

He paid out $8,600,000 in relief last year, and did the way among the province in dealing with relief.

By the Debt Adjustment legislation of last session, farmers had been given a break in the price of their goods for three years in which they may have a chance to adjust their affairs.

During this period the farmer is to retain, first, his own property, second, his own stock, third, his own land, fourth, his own clothing and medical attention, his farm expenses and a balance with which he is to finance the succeeding crop.

Prior to discussing Social Credit, Mr. Brownlee had great cause to say on the wheat situation, which he said was a vital question to the people of Alberta. He declared that he was engaged with Mr. Albertson on Social Credit principle, having his argument on the constitutional procedure brought, and that he was illustrated by the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, which had ruled in favor of the Recovery Act in that country, despite the popular backing behind the bill.

He stated that there were two sides to the issue of the government, and that the two courses in the event of disagreement with the Dominion; secession, which was not to be the example given, or there in the case of New Australia, or by fighting, which could not be recommended.

Mr. Brownlee then mentioned the case of New South Wales, Australia. The premier, Mr. Lang, would not follow in with the Dominion, and was required by the Commonwealth of Australia. When the courts decided the case, he refused to obey the court's decision, and was removed from the premiership.

At the close of the address, Mr. Brownlee answered a number of questions. A vote of thanks was accorded the speaker by Mr. H. B. Brownlee, and the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

C. N. Railway Reviews

The gross revenue of the Canadian National Railway system for the week ending June 15, 1935, was $2,811,625 compared with $2,822,225 for the corresponding week of 1934, a decrease of $10,600.

U.F.A. Prov. Constituency Association of Hand Hills

Convention at Hanna

The U.F.A. Provincial Constituency Association of Hand Hills held a very successful convention at Hanna June 15th.

In the afternoon Mr. J. E. Brownlee spoke briefly on the University Act in reply to a question, but the speaker was not present.

Mr. Brownlee spoke for over two hours before a most appreciative audience and the speaker made a great impression.

The force of his arguments was so overwhelming that the audience had no question as to this. It is astonishing, because it was understood that question time was to be a grating period. Col. Robinson, U.F.A. candidate for the Hand Hills constituency, also addressed the meeting.

1st. Food for the coming year.

2nd. Farm expansion.

To the Editor of The Delia Times: I read C. H. McNeill's letter with a great deal of interest. My first thought was to endeavor to give him a few minutes to answer, but I am not doing so.

It is the intention of Mr. J. E. Brownlee to reply to a question, but the speaker was not present.

Hand Hill Echoes

The Women's Social Club held their annual meeting on June 13th at the home of Mrs. H. Jones. On account of the heavy rain and bad roads many of the members were unable to attend. The Hand Hill Ladies' Aid, who had been invited to the meeting, were also unable to attend. However, we hope to have the Ladies' Aid with us on another time. Mrs. H. Jones was the retiring president, and Mrs. Morrison the retiring secretary. Mr. P. McFadden was elected president, and Mrs. H. Jones secretary. After the business was discussed, and other work done, the hostess served a lovely lunch.

The depressed price of farm products is a problem with which everyone is familiar, but one of the main reasons for this is the fact that the price of gasoline has risen so much since 1920. The graph shows the price of gasoline from 1920 to 1935, and it is seen that the price has risen from 10 cents to 15 cents per gallon.
